

CHAPTER V.

THE DESCENDANTS OF JAMES I'ANSON. (SECOND SON OF RALPH.)

JAMES I'ANSON, second son of Ralph, had five sons and three daughters.

Sons—

1. LEONARD, baptised at Hawxwell, 29th July, 1599, married there to Jane Deacon, 27th November, 1627, and died there about the year 1663. From him is descended the branch now at Saltburn-by-the-Sea, Co. York.
2. William, baptised 23rd November, 1604. Married, at Wensley, on 6th May, 1634, to Margaret, daughter of Owen Dent, of Leyburn. Buried at Wensley, 30th June, 1659. From him are descended the I'Ansons of Darlington, and the Jansons of London, Chislehurst, Exeter, &c.
3. Ralph, baptised at Hawxwell, 31st January, 1612, of whom nothing further is on record.
4. John (of Seashill, in the parish of Catterick), baptised at Hawxwell, 11th July, 1615, married Jane Brockill, 7th March, 1640.
5. James (of Thorpe Underston, in the chapelry of Hudswell), baptised at Hawxwell, 18th February, 1617, whose Will was proved by his wife, Genet, and his eldest son, Ralph, 18th April, 1668. An extract of this Will is given in a later chapter.

Daughters—

1. Alice, baptised at Hawxwell, 29th June, 1602.
2. Margaret, baptised at Hawxwell, 8th March, 1606.
3. Elizabeth, baptised at Hawxwell, 28th January, 1609 (probably the Elizabeth I'Anson who married Robert Jackson, 6th May, 1640).

In regard to James, fifth son of James, the extract of his Will contains all the information on record as to his descendants, and the remainder of this chapter will treat, therefore, of the descendants of Leonard, the eldest son of James. The descendants of William, the second son, are so numerous that they will be divided into sub-branches, and their histories will form the subject of another chapter.

LEONARD I'ANSON, of East Hawxwell, baptised at Hawxwell 29th July, 1599, married Jane Deacon, 27th November, 1627, and was buried at Hawxwell on 7th March, 1663. His Will, dated 29th February, 1664, made his wife Jane executrix, and is endorsed by his son James: "And I, James I'Anson, heir and eldest son, in all things approve of the above Will; as witness my hand, 26th May 1664," from which we gather that Thomas, the first son of the marriage, born in 1628, had died during his father's lifetime without issue. His other children were:—

Sons—

1. James, baptised 7th November, 1630, of whom nothing further is recorded.
2. WILLIAM, baptised 10th November, 1635. Of whom presently.
3. Leonard, baptised 5th May, 1650, married Elizabeth Watson on 1st February, 1687. Nothing further is recorded.

Daughters—

1. Jane, baptised 10th July, 1633; married, 3rd November, 1652, to Thomas Watson.
2. Alice, baptised 17th May, 1640, at Hawxwell, and married there, 7th April, 1667, to John Cockfield.
3. Margaret, baptised at Hawxwell 8th January, 1642.

WILLIAM I'ANSON, of Hawxwell, second surviving son of Leonard, was buried at Hawxwell on 11th February, 1696, aged 60. There is no record of his marriage, and his wife's name is not known. He had three sons and two daughters.

Sons--

1. Leonard, baptised 14th April, 1667.
2. Matthew, baptised 26th September, 1686.

LEONARD I'ANSON, of Hawxwell, second son of the above Leonard, born 16th November, 1772; married, at Hawxwell, Mary, daughter of Archdeacon Heslop. It is said that his capital was absorbed by the attractions of the turf, and he disposed of his interests in Hawxwell parish and removed to Spennithorne, where certain of his children were born.

He died at Harmby, and was buried at Spennithorne 3rd April, 1851, aged 79. He had four sons and four daughters.

Sons—

1. Robert, baptised at Hawxwell 25th April, 1801.
2. Thomas, probably baptised at Spennithorne.
3. William, probably baptised at Spennithorne.
4. NATHAN, baptised at Spennithorne 16th April, 1820. Of whom presently.

Daughters—
